A group of musicians that: are passionate about making music; are committed to sharing history with students of all ages; enjoy working together. Gathered from many different backgrounds and regions, they hail from: Minnesota in the north; Connecticut to the east; and south and west as far as Texas. Their roots spread all over Kentucky, Illinois, and Indiana. doctors, lawyers, teachers, ministers, engineers, machinists and retired military all work shoulder-to-shoulder to recreate the music of the Civil War era using the actual band arrangements and appropriate instruments. The music comes from the brass band journals of the 1850's, the Library of Congress, and collections in historical societies and museums.

Even as we enter our 20th year, the award winning Red Bank ReUnion Band is still drawn together by an interest in history, a love for the instruments and a need (or compulsion, if you will) to make music. The Band was selected as the 2017 Winner of the Southwest Indiana Arts Council “Performing Ensemble Award.”

Prelude

“Tramp, Tramp, Tramp”

Call to Worship

ONE: Calling all children of the Living God: the gospel is good news for every age and every stage.

ALL: Let us worship together, the young and the old.

ONE: The good news is proclaimed in God’s words, and also with crayons, silly songs, snacks, and rest time.

ALL: Let us worship together, every generation.

ONE: We come together with different abilities and disabilities, learning in a rainbow of ways and styles.

ALL: Let us worship together, with our family of faith.

ONE: All are welcome in the arms of Christ who proclaimed, “Let the children come!”.

ALL: Let us worship together, united in our eternal hope.

Call to Prayer

Rev. Dan Ashton

Pastoral Prayer

Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Children’s Moment

Linda Duke

Please join in singing “Jesus Loves Me” as the children come forward and “I am the Church, You are the Church, We are the Church together. All who follow Jesus, all around the world, Yes we’re the Church together” as the boys and girls exit the service.
